Becoming Explorers in God's Adventures

JULY 1-8, 2017

DEAR FRIEND

We all can use a change of scenery. A time set aside to relax . . . to reconnect . . . to reflect on God's presence. An opportunity to explore those challenging adventures God has for us.

Ever find yourself craving such a change for you and your family? If so, I invite you to step away from your busy world and board the 2017 Insight for Living Ministries Alaska Cruise Conference. I can assure you: everyone will return renewed!

July 1-8, 2017, we'll be cruising on Holland America Line's luxury ship the MS Eurodam. I can't think of a more inspiring way to celebrate the Fourth of July than by voyaging through some of America's most spacious skies and majestic mountains. We'll explore the rugged grandeur of God's creation, from Mendenhall Glacier in Juneau to the Misty Fjords of Ketchikan. Throughout the cruise, we'll gather together for onboard sessions of worship and Bible teaching. I'll bring several messages centered around our theme: "Becoming Explorers in God's Adventures."

By the way, your children and grandchildren won't be left out! They'll study the Bible, worship, and explore Alaska alongside you. They'll also enjoy their own fun and creative learning environments, with curriculum and activities tailor-made to enhance their adventures. Our "kid experts," Dave Carl and Kristi McElheney—both from Stonebriar Community Church, are already excited about making this a life-impacting trip for teenagers and elementary-aged children.

Our featured guest artists will include comic ventriloquist David Pendleton, Dove-award winner Steve Green, and world-renowned quartet Ernie Haase and Signature Sound. What a lineup! And what a grand opportunity to draw closer to our Lord Jesus as we get to know one another during this spectacular journey!

Cynthia and I truly look forward to this unforgettable time with you, as we experience the wonders of Alaska aboard the MS Eurodam and, together, become explorers in those adventures that God drops into our life experiences!

Anticipating a memorable voyage with you,

Chuck Swindoll

7-DAY CRUISE ITINERARY

Filled with ice-blue glaciers, waterfalls and snow-covered mountains rising up from the water's edge, Alaska immerses travelers in a spectacular geography handcrafted by the Creator. With more mountains, glaciers and wildlife than almost anywhere else on earth, Alaska is a place like no other.

DEPARTING:

SEATTLE, WASHINGTON

SATURDAY, JULY 1, 2017

EMBARKATION: 11:30 A.M. - 2:30 P.M.

DEPART: 4:00 P.M.

DAY AT SEA

SUNDAY, JULY 2

JUNEAU, ALASKA

MONDAY, JULY 3, 1:00 P.M. - 10:00 P.M.

Alaska's capital city was founded in 1880 during a gold rush. Today, there's a different kind of rush going on, as visitors flock to the adventure waiting for them at this popular destination, where lush forests and towering mountains crash up against the icy Gastineau Channel. The enormous Mendenhall Glacier lurks nearby, as do the Juneau icefields and the Tongass National Forest. From hiking, fishing or ziplining to whale-watching and shopping, this modern city with a frontier past is nestled amid nature's vast playground.

SCENIC CRUISING THROUGH GLACIER BAY

TUESDAY, JULY 4, 7:00 A.M. - 4:00 P.M.

Only a few exclusive cruise lines have been given access to the waters of Glacier Bay, a U.S. National Park and UNESCO World Heritage Site. Located west of Juneau, the glassy surface of this impossibly scenic body of water is surrounded by deep fjords, green forests, snowcapped mountains and countless massive tidewater glaciers. Passengers often enjoy breathtaking views of icebergs calving off the walls of ice and splashing into the cold waters below.

SITKA, ALASKA

WEDNESDAY, JULY 5, 7:00 A.M. - 3:30 P.M.

Once a prominent Russian settlement, Sitka was the West Coast's most important port for the first part of the 19th century. Now a remote fishing village in the shadow of the volcanic Mt. Edgecumbe, Sitka offers sweeping views of the Pacific Ocean and combines its historic Russian influence with the local Native Alaskan culture. Don't miss the dramatic spires of the Russian Orthodox St. Michael's Cathedral, Sitka's amazing seafood and salmon restaurants, and the fascinating Raptor Center and Totem Park.

KETCHIKAN, ALASKA

THURSDAY, JULY 6, 7:00 A.M. - 1:00 P.M.

Here in the "Salmon Capital of the World," the stilted houses and colorful shops of the historic Creek Street boardwalk welcome visitors. The world's largest collection of standing totem poles—distributed among four locations in the area—call attention to the artistry and culture of native Alaska. This island location is surrounded by verdant forests, rugged peaks, rushing waterfalls and all the natural beauty for which this state is famous. Weathered and unique, Ketchikan is authentic Alaska.

VICTORIA, B.C., CANADA

FRIDAY, JULY 7, 6:00 P.M. - 11:59 P.M.

Known as the "City of Gardens" and located at the southern tip of Vancouver Island, Victoria is one of the most British cities in the Americas. Doubledecker buses ferry passengers near turreted castles as well as skyscrapers—all lining a spectacular natural harbor. With a range of snow-capped mountains in the background, travelers enjoy Victoria's gourmet restaurants, inspiring galleries and fashionable boutiques.
