

Celebrate and Trust God

Trust God!

1 SAMUEL 30:1–4; PSALM 91:1–2, 14–16; PROVERBS 3:5–6

The Heart of the Matter

Sometimes the simplest messages are the hardest to obey. The simplest messages are also the easiest to forget. One such simple message is only two words. It rarely comes to our minds or crosses our lips when life suddenly turns dark and dreary, even though we know these two words are true and can have powerful results in our lives. What is this message? Well, in plain and simple language: TRUST GOD! Easy to say, hard to do. But perhaps a page from David's life can make remembering and obeying this simple message a little bit easier.

Discovering the Way

1. A Command That's Hard to Obey (Proverbs 3:5–6)

Proverbs 3 commands us to trust in the Lord and not in ourselves, but it sure is difficult to do.

2. A Situation That Was Hard to Handle (1 Samuel 30:1–6)

David suddenly faced a life-and-death situation that left him one option: trust in God.

3. A Promise That's Easy to Live With (Psalm 91:1–2, 14–16)

The Lord promises protection and blessings for those who trust in Him.

Starting Your Journey

We do not know what lies ahead of us in our lives, but God knows and He is trustworthy. So, today, make it your firm commitment to trust God, no matter what comes.

Tools for Digging Deeper

Celebrate and Trust God
by Charles R. Swindoll
CD set

How Can I Win
Over Worry?
by Insight for Living
booklet

Overcoming Anxiety
by Insight for Living
booklet

To order any of these recommended resources, call 1-800-663-7639 or visit insightforliving.ca