

A Three-Dimensional Christmas

Indescribable Gift

LUKE 2:1-14; 2 CORINTHIANS 9:15

The Heart of the Matter

We're all familiar with the familiar saying that familiarity breeds contempt. This is not always true; sometimes, familiarity breeds boredom. And boredom is the real danger we face when we approach the Christmas story. It's so familiar, our minds just hit the highlights, because we think we've already plumbed the depths of every detail. But if we could approach the nativity as if we've never read it before, we'd discover something new and exciting—we'd discover that the birth of Jesus is a gift too wonderful for words.

Discovering the Way

1. A Fresh Perspective on the Gift of God (Luke 2:1-14)

The birth of Jesus Christ has become a worn-out story for many Christians, but it can come alive again if you look at it with new eyes.

2. Gratitude for the Indescribable Gift of God (2 Corinthians 9:15)

The birth of Jesus Christ is a gift of God that is too wonderful for words, yet Paul tried to describe how grateful he was for the gift of Christ's birth.

3. The Spotless Purity of God's Gift

The birth of Jesus Christ introduced to sinful humanity the sinless Savior, who gave Himself as a gift to redeem us.

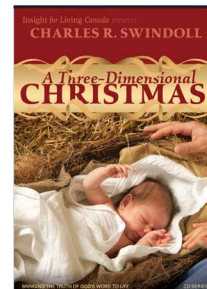

Starting Your Journey

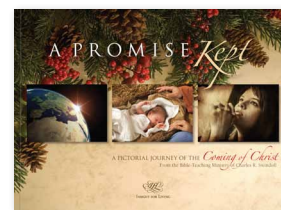

Christmas is a time to remind ourselves that God's gift of Jesus is God's gift of love and acceptance. With every new Christmas, God announces that He loves you and wants you to be His.
